Class Poem

Though we're only twelve in number,
Still fighting for the highest goal,
Never are we found in slumber,
As success we strive to hold.

Even if we miss our aim,
After doing our best, things have gone awry,
Let's not falter and stop the game,
But continue with spirits soaring high.

To others we must bestow good will,
If our dreams we wish to fulfill,
And when our duty is magnified,
Our dreams, at last, will be glorified.

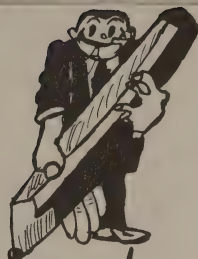

May we, as Seniors, remember always
To fight in obtaining success,
Thereby we will brighten our days,
With shining rays of happiness.

By Kaye Hiatt

CLASS      WILL

We, the Seniors of '48 being of sound minds and failing memories for history dates, do bequeath in the following manner the following bequests to the following groups and persons, these things,

To the Freshmen: We will our good times, and may we grant to you our encouragement for your coming years.

To the Sophomores: The privilege to use the gym when the opportunity occurs.

To the Juniors: We hereby will our place as first in line to the lunchroom. To the Junior girls go our mirrors at the back of our room. We also will the honor and responsibility of continuing the publication of "VOICES of the Blue and White".

Lois Sue Hilton wishes for Johnsie Hiatt to have her place as cheerleader. She wills her love for laughter to Nancy Swice good.

Kaye Hiatt wills her ability to print to Clara Mae Ball. To Vera Head she leaves her many good grades.

Joan Clodfelter wills to Martha Mae Cain the excess of her smiles. To Levoe Hilton she leaves her position on the basketball team.

Betty Gobble and Betty Rose Portis will their hard times in French class to Imogene Reid and Hilda Eller. Their position as guards on the ball team to Mary Grace Everhart and Polly Leonard.

Betty Lou Disher wishes for Clyde Beeson to have her position as President of the Beta Club. She wills her charm for the French teacher to Gwendolyn Leonard.

Juanita Nifong wills her excess boys to Lorraine Beck. She leaves her solemn ways and giggles to Lucy Disher and Doris Martin.

Odell Weisner wills his popularity and love for the sophomore girls to Vernon Smith.

Billy Joe Shoaf and Thurman Lawrence will their ability to work arithmetic to John Berrier and Don Martin.

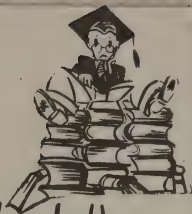

Leon Bowers wills his school bus to Glenn Hilton.

D.E. Hiatt wills his pleasing smile to Coy Craver.

Class History

The Senior class of 1948 has been decidedly different from the usual High School class throughout its four years of school work.

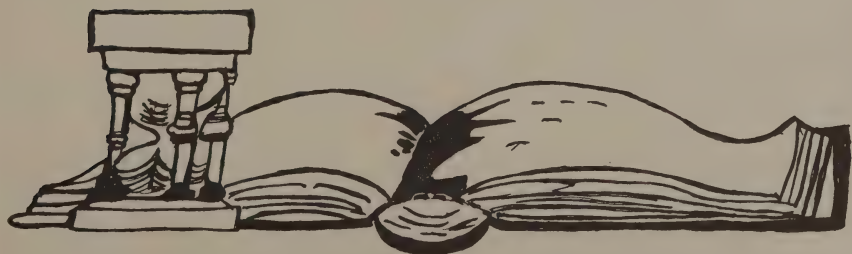

The 1945 Freshman class enrolled with twenty-seven students. The outstanding event of the year was the Christmas party held at Betty Jean Gobble's in spite of cold weather. The class was sponsored by Mr. Graham.

At the beginning of the Sophomore year, Mrs. Whitt, our sponsor, had twenty-six students enrolled. During the year our class entered the Halloween Carnival with a harvest queen contestant, Betty Lou Disher. Then the lavish event came to an end with Betty being crowned queen and awarded a loving cup.

The Junior year, with twenty members, was a busy one. The Seniors were entertained at a banquet given in their honor at the Lexington Country Club. Under the direction of Mr. Long, the sponsor, the class presented "Betty Jane from Punkin Lane".

So dawned the Senior year, destined to be one of the outstanding years of the class history. Mrs. Robert Motsinger, the sponsor, had only twelve members enrolled. Again at the Halloween Carnival, one of our members was crowned queen. Upon being crowned queen, Betty Jean Gobble was also awarded a loving cup. Since it is customary for the Seniors to attend the State Fair, the Seniors of 1948 left on October 16, 1947 and returned that night. The Seniors also saw the Freedom Train on December 3, 1947 with the Juniors under the supervision of Mr. Long. The sponsoring of the Year Book was an outstanding accomplishment with Kaye Hiatt as Editor-in-Chief. Coming forward to fill the Senior presidential chair was Thurman Lawrence.

CLASS

PROPHECY

I, Thurman Lawrence, after graduating from Midway School and Greyhound Bus Lines training school, am driving a bus from Charleston to Columbia.

One day as I was punching tickets and counting my passengers, I noticed Lieutenant Billy Joe Shoaf of the Marines. He began to tell me about our '48 classmates.

Betty Rose Portis is now an artist in New York City. She is working for La Frue Té studio on Broadway.

Joan and Juanita own the "Stardust" night club at West Palm Beach. They are now celebrated singers at their famous club.

Leon has done very well, as he now is the owner of Bowers' Hoisery Mill in Alabama.

Working on the school paper and annual really helped Kaye, who is now editor of the Washington Herald.

Lois Sue, owning plenty of money as well as handling plenty, is now a teller in the First National Bank in Los Angeles, California.

Betty Disher and Betty Gobble work for the Acme modeling studio of Los Angeles. They model for the magazines, such as "Seventeen and other fashion books.

Some sport scout saw Odell play a good game of basketball while he was in high school. This was a break for him, as he is now coach of Princeton, University in New Jersey.

Special Recognition

Betty Lou Disher, a senior, is honored by special recognition for submitting the title, "Voices of the Blue and White," which was selected by judges as the name of our 1948 Yearbook.

Juanita: "What is bought by the yard and worn by the foot?"

Leon: "I don't know. What?"

Juanita: "A carpet."

Joan: "Can I put this wallpaper on myself?"

Clerk: "Certainly, but it would look much better on the wall."

Old Lady: "You're pretty dirty, aren't you?"

Clara Mae: "Yes, but I'm lots prettier clean."

"Oh, mother!" cried Donald. "There's a big black bear in the yard."

"You know it's only a big dog," said his mother.

"Go to your room and ask God to forgive you for telling a lie."

Later Don came downstairs and his mother said,

"Did you ask God to forgive you?"

"Yes," he replied, "and He said it was all right. He thought it was a bear, too."

Faithful nurse: "I'm afraid you've been eating too many sweets. Let me see your tongue."

Odell: "You can look at it, but it won't tell."

Mr. Long: "Since none of you finished the history assignment, the whole class will stay after school."

Benny: "Give me liberty or give me death!"

Mr. Long: "Who said that?"

Benny: "Patrick Henry."

---

Sue: "I want these curtains, please."

Clerk: "That's one dollar, plus 24¢ for the tax."

Sue: "Don't bother about the tacks, my mother uses curtain rods."

Mother: "What are those brown spots on your new suit?"

D.E. "Rust, I guess. The sales man said this would wear like iron."

Betty Rose: "Mother, today on the bus a little girl fell off her seat, and everyone laughed, except me."

Mother: "Who was the little girl?"

Betty Rose: "Me."

Betty Lou: "Why are you standing on your head?"

Joan: "I'm turning things over in my mind."

Leon: "What has eighteen legs and catches flies?"

Billy Joe: "A baseball team."

John: "My car has an indifferent horn."

Kaye: "What kind of horn is that?"

John: "It doesn't give a hoot."

"I beg your pardon," said the fat man, returning to his seat in the theater, "but did I step on your feet when I left?"

"You certainly did."

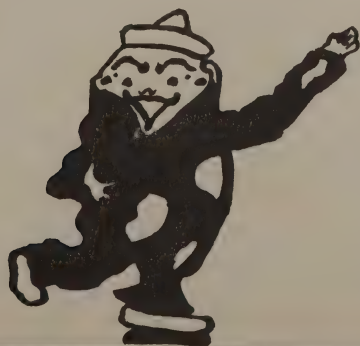

"Good, then I'm in the right row."

Patrol Leader: "When rain falls, does it rise again?"

Bright Scout: "Yes, in dew time."
